MINISTER FOR WOMEN DEVELOPMENT, GOVERNMENT OF PUNJAB OFFICIAL VISIT TO JAPAN

Contributed by Begum Hameeda Waheed-ud-Din, Provincial Minister for Women Development, Punjab

I attended a High-Level Seminar on Peace building, National Reconciliation and Democratization in Asia as per the invitation of the Japanese Government on 20th of June, 2015. It was indeed an honour for me.

The seminar was proposed by Mr. Shinzo Abe, the Prime Minister of Japan at the East Asia Summit in November 2014. He emphasized Japan's continued commitment to peace and democracy in Asia as part of his policy of Proactive Contribution to Peace. His hospitality and courteousness towards all the participants were observed not only during the seminar but by his approach in receiving them by himself. This is a subtle reflection of the great importance of peace for Japan and the people of Japan.

No country can understand the need of peace more than Japan as it was the only country against which nuclear weapons were used for warfare.

The pertinence and relevance of peace stems from Japan's history itself. After the Second World War, it took many years to recover itself. Thus, the recognition of peace is rooted deep within Japan.

My respect for Japan is moreover heightened due to their determination. Japan lacks many raw materials required for industry and energy including oil, iron ore, coal, copper and aluminum. Moreover, the Second World War left the country crushed with deep socio-economic losses. Nevertheless, Japan did not give up and worked remarkably hard for the next 23 years. Those crucial years of diligence and adeptness have placed Japan as a global leader today.

As the 2nd largest economy in the world, this further showcases the economy's internal efforts throughout history.

It remained as the 2nd largest economy from 1978 to 2010 and is presently the 3rd largest economy in the world.

Mr. Fumio Kishida, Minister for Foreign Affairs of Japan was also from Hiroshima and in his keynote speech of the seminar, he described Japan's efforts in many parts of Asia for the last 70 years.

Ethnic and religious conflicts continue to take place around the world but in several Asian countries, peace building, national reconciliation and democratization have made progress. Pakistan is one of those countries, displaying the following:

1. From 2002, the Government started completing its tenures.
2. Before 2002, the army took control on an 'off and on' ad hoc basis, and sometimes the assembly was dissolved. None of the governments could complete even half of their tenure and deliver services to the people of Pakistan.
3. Improvement in democracy in Pakistan has however been observed through various efforts. We are heading towards national reconciliation, democratization and peace building.

My observations stemming from the seminar accentuate the role of the Government if we want to achieve peace as a nation. In order to eliminate any kind of conflict and maintain peace, each country must be responsible for their own regions first. There are many elements like civil societies and the media who can play a role in these but in my view, the primary responsibility is of the Government.

The first influential factor is the trust level between the Government and the people. Whenever Governments make decisions, they must consider the opinions of the majority of the people including the provision of basic necessities. What is happening in the world, what is wrong and what is right are prime areas that people must know about. The Government must in turn work towards raising awareness for these. Acknowledging the concerns of the people is a stimulus to unity.

The Government has to improve its trust level as when the people trust the Government, they will stand united. If the nation and the Government are united, no element within or outside the country can succeed to destabilize or start any conspiracy against country. There must be justice. If there is justice, I believe conflict will be controlled.

Moreover, people must not only be aware of their rights but the rights of others as well. There must be tolerance for diversity. People must accept that there are different languages, cultures and religions in the country and we have to respect each other. People have to accept the role of women and we have to empower them even more. 52% of our population consists of women. The pursuit of gender equality and inclusion and empowerment of women are of critical importance.

I myself participated as a panelist in the panel discussion at the seminar where the subject was peace building, women and children. In spite of the fact that women and children are generally victims of violence, I shared two great examples of individuals in our country who have played significant roles in peace building; Ms. Benazir Butto; the ex-Prime Minister of Pakistan and the brave young victim of terrorism; Ms. Malala Yousafzai.

Ms. Bhutto raised a voice against terrorism and sacrificed her life for peace. Ms. Malala was shot in the head by a Taliban gunman in 2012, but she survived. With the added retrieval of a Noble Peace Prize on the account of Ms. Malala in 2014, Pakistan has proved great potential for peace building through the voice and actions of the people themselves.

Similarly, 132 innocent children who were killed in the most heinous terrorist attack in Peshawar on 16th December 2014. They have become emblems of peace building and have united our nation in the fight against terrorism.

I appreciate the efforts of United Nations and regional organizations that have played important roles in this regard. I hope we will continue to see even more steps towards peace, national reconciliation and democracy so that we can all work together towards achieving our goals.

On a personal note, I got my own basic education in Japan and I remember a compulsory subject called moral education (Dotoku) that we had to study. It aimed towards changing mind-sets of people. We have to focus on education and support educators in initiating similar character building related subjects in Pakistan. In my view, when children grow up they 'become' what they learn from their childhood. School education is one of the most important elements for this. We should take measures in advance so that we can flourish as peaceful citizens in society and witness our future generations practicing and improving peaceful living even more.

Taking this opportunity now let me explain a bit the bilateral relations between Pakistan and Japan. Both the countries have enjoyed very close and cordial relations since the establishment of diplomatic relations in 1952.

The friendly relationship between Pakistan and Japan in modern history began with cooperation in mainly economic and business arena. Japan has been supporting Pakistan's economic and social development for years. Japan has been one of the leading donors in this country for most of the time and has been helping Pakistan to improve infrastructure, to develop human resources and to provide better education and health services.

Japan has been especially a strong partner with Pakistan at a time of difficulties when Pakistan was hit by several natural disasters, such as the huge earthquake in 2005 and floods in 2010 and subsequent years in providing emergency assistance and supporting rehabilitation and reconstruction. We hope that Japan will continue to be with Pakistan.

I strongly believe that there are numerous fields in which Pakistan and Japan can work together in the future. We would definitely be happy to see both our countries and our peoples working together towards promoting democracy, peace, economy, culture, education, and so on.

In the end, I would like to reiterate the role of the Government again and to reach out for any technical support needed. We need to acknowledge the power of working with the people we strive to support, through simple steps of trust building, education and character development, awareness and empowerment.

Given Pakistan's experience, expertise and determination to tackle these issues using 21st century tools, we are confident that our Pakistan's future is bright. However, the challenge cannot be met by one country alone. It is multi-dimensional and requires meaningful international cooperation. Thank you

جاپان میں امن سیمینار

کیونکہ جب لوگ حکومت پر اعتماد کریں گے وہ متحد ہوں گے۔ اگر حکومت اور قوم متحد ہوں گے، تو کوئی بھی عنصر ملک کے اندر اور باہر سے ملک کو غیر مستحکم کرنے یا ملک کے خلاف سازش کرنے میں کامیاب نہیں ہو سکتا۔

یہاں انصاف ہونا چاہیے کیونکہ اگر انصاف ہوگا تو مجھے یقین ہے کہ ہم دنیا میں امن قائم کر سکتے ہیں۔ یہ حقیقت ہے کہ ہمارے ملک میں مختلف زبانیں، ثقافتیں اور مذاہب ہیں۔ اس حقیقت کو تسلیم کرتے ہوئے ہمیں معاشرے میں رواداری، تحمل، برداشت اور بردباری کو فروغ دینا چاہیے ہمیں اس کا ادراک ہونا چاہیے کہ ہم سب میں مل جل کر رہنا ہے۔ میں یہ سمجھتی ہوں کہ لوگوں کو خواتین کی اہمیت اور ملکی ترقی میں ان کا فعال کردار قبول کرنا چاہیے۔ صنفی امتیاز کے خاتمہ کے ساتھ ساتھ خواتین کو معاشی اور سیاسی طور پر بااختیار بنانا بھی نہایت ضروری ہے۔ میں نے ٹوکیو میں امن سیمینار میں بطور پینلسٹ ایک مباحثے میں شرکت کی جس کا موضوع امن، خواتین اور بچے تھے۔ اس حقیقت کے باوجود کہ ہمارے معاشرے میں عام طور پر خواتین اور بچے تشدد کا نشانہ بنتے ہیں، میں نے اپنے ملک میں امن کے قیام کے لئے اہم کردار ادا کرنے اور اپنی جان قربان کرنے والی وزیراعظم بے نظیر بھٹو اور نوجوان طالبہ ملالہ یوسفزئی کی مثالیں دیں۔ ملالہ کو اپنے حق کے لیے آواز بلند کرنے اور خصوصاً لڑکیوں کی تعلیم کے لیے جدوجہد کرنے کی پاداش میں طالبان نے 2012ء میں سر پر گولی ماری لیکن وہ بچ گئی جس کو 2014ء میں امن کا نوبل انعام بھی ملا۔ جو ہم سب کے لیے ایک بہت بڑا اعزاز ہے۔ یہ ایک مسلمہ حقیقت ہے کہ پاکستان نے دنیا بھر میں دہشت گردی کے واقعات کی سخت مذمت کی ہے۔ پاکستان نے امن کے قیام کے لئے اپنی کوششوں کو عملی اقدامات سے ثابت کیا ہے۔ 16 دسمبر کو پشاور میں 132 معصوم بچے دہشت گردی کے حملوں کا نشانہ بن گئے انہوں نے اپنی جان دے کر دہشت گردی کے خلاف جنگ میں ہماری قوم کو متحد کر دیا۔ میں اقوام متحدہ اور علاقائی تنظیموں کی اس سلسلے میں کوششوں کو سراہتی ہوں۔ مجھے امید ہے کہ ہم سب متحد ہو کر امن، مفاہمت اور جمہوریت کے لئے مزید اقدامات جاری رکھیں گے تاکہ دنیا کو امن کا گہوارہ بنایا جاسکے۔

ایک ذاتی بات یہ کہ میں نے اپنی ابتدائی تعلیم جاپان میں حاصل کی اور مجھے یاد ہے کہ ہمیں پرائمری سطح پر اخلاقی تعلیم دی جاتی تھی جس کا مقصد بچوں کو ابتداء سے ہی ذمہ دار، امن پسند اور مفید شہری بنانا ہوتا تھا۔ ہمیں پاکستان میں کردار کی تربیت کرنے والے مضامین متعارف کروانا چاہئیں اور میرے خیال میں جب بچے بڑے ہوتے ہیں تو وہ وہی کچھ بنتے ہیں جو انہوں نے اپنے بچپن میں سیکھا ہوتا ہے۔ سکول کی تعلیم اس سلسلے میں نہایت اہم بنیادی عنصر ہے۔ ہمیں پہلے ہی ایسے اقدامات کر لینے چاہئیں جس سے ہم پرامن شہری بن سکیں اور اپنی مستقبل کی نسلوں کو پرامن طور پر معاشرے میں زندگی بسر کرتا ہوا دیکھ سکیں۔

آخر میں یہ کہنا چاہوں گی کہ 21 ویں صدی کے تقاضوں کے پیش نظر ہم ان مسائل سے نمٹنے کے لئے عزم اور تجربات کی روشنی میں پراعتاد ہیں، ہمارے پاکستان کا مستقبل روشن ہے یہ بھی حقیقت ہے کہ کوئی بھی ملک تنہا کسی چیلنج سے نمٹ نہیں سکتا، اس کے لئے بین الاقوامی تعاون کی ضرورت ناگزیر ہے۔

بیگم حمیدہ وحید الدین صوبائی وزیر برائے ترقی خواتین، حکومت پنجاب

میں نے 20 جون 2015ء کو جاپانی حکومت کی دعوت پر امن کے قیام، برادران تعلقات اور جمہوریت کے موضوع پر ٹوکیو میں ایک اعلیٰ سطحی سیمینار میں شرکت کی جو میرے لئے ایک بڑا اعزاز تھا۔ اس سیمینار کی تجویز جاپان کے وزیراعظم مسٹر شینزوا یے نے نومبر 2014ء میں ایسٹ ایشیا کانفرنس میں دی تھی۔ انہوں نے جاپانی حکومت کی پالیسی کے تحت ایشیا میں امن اور جمہوریت کے عزم کو دہرایا۔ سیمینار کے شرکاء نے جاپانی حکومت کی میزبانی اور وزیراعظم کی طرف سے سیمینار سے ایک دن قبل اپنے استقبال کو سراہا۔ یہ جاپان اور جاپانی عوام کا امن کی عظیم اہمیت کے لئے ایک اہم اظہار تھا۔ کوئی بھی ملک جاپان سے زیادہ امن کی اہمیت نہیں سمجھ سکتا کیونکہ جاپان دنیا کا واحد ملک ہے جس کے خلاف ایٹمی ہتھیار جنگ کے دوران استعمال کئے گئے جس کے بعد جاپان کو اپنے پاؤں پر کھڑا ہونے میں کئی سال لگ گئے۔ لہذا امن کی پہچان اور اعتراف جاپان کی تاریخ کا ایک اہم حصہ ہے۔

مزید برآں جاپانی قوم کے عزم و استقلال کی وجہ سے جاپان کے لئے میرے احترام میں اضافہ ہو گیا ہے۔ دوسری جنگ عظیم نے جاپان کو گہرا سماجی و معاشی نقصان پہنچایا۔ جاپان کو صنعت اور توانائی کے لئے درکار تیل، خام لوہا، کونک، تانبا، پتیل، ایلومینیم اور کثرت سمیت متعدد خام مال کی قلت کا سامنا تھا۔ اس کے باوجود جاپان نے ہمت نہ ہاری اور اگلے 23 سالوں تک مسلسل سخت محنت کی جس کے نتیجے میں جاپان کو آج دنیا کی دوسری بڑی معیشت کا درجہ حاصل ہوا۔ جاپان 1978ء سے 2010ء تک دوسری بڑی اور اس وقت دنیا کی تیسری بڑی معیشت ہے۔ جاپان کے وزیر خارجہ جن کا تعلق ہیروشیما سے ہے نے اپنی تقریر میں گزشتہ 70 برس کے دوران ایشیا کے مختلف ممالک میں امن کے لئے کی جانے والی کوششوں کا ذکر کیا۔ آج دنیا کے مختلف ممالک کو گروہی اور مذہبی مسائل کا سامنا ہے۔ لیکن متعدد ایشیائی ممالک میں امن، برادرانہ تعلقات اور جمہوریت کے لئے پیش رفت ہوئی ہے اور پاکستان بھی ان ممالک میں شامل ہے۔ جیسے 2002ء سے حکومتیں اپنی مدت پوری کر رہی ہیں۔ 2002ء سے قبل فوج ایڈہاک بنیاد پر لگا رہے برس اقتدار رہی اور اسمبلیاں تحلیل کی جاتی رہیں۔ کوئی بھی حکومت عوام کی خدمت اور اپنی نصف مدت بھی پوری نہ کر سکی۔ تاہم پاکستان میں مختلف کوششوں کے ذریعے جمہوریت میں بہتری آئی ہے۔ ہم قومی مفاہمت، جمہوری رویوں اور امن کی تعمیر کی طرف بڑھ رہے ہیں۔ کسی بھی کشمکش کے خاتمے اور امن کے قیام و پائیداری کے لئے ہر ملک اپنے خطے کے لئے پہلے ذمہ دار ہے۔ اس میں سول سوسائٹی اور میڈیا جیسے اہم عناصر کردار ادا کر سکتے ہیں۔ لیکن میرے خیال میں بنیادی ذمہ داری حکومت کی ہے۔

پہلا اہم عنصر حکومت اور عوام کے درمیان اعتماد کا ہے۔ جب بھی حکومتیں فیصلہ کریں اس میں عوام کی اکثریت کی آراء کو مد نظر رکھنا چاہیے۔ حکومت کو عوام کے لیے بنیادی سہولیات کی فراہمی کو یقینی بنانا چاہیے۔ عوام کو یہ علم ہونا چاہیے کہ اندرون و بیرون ملک میں کیا ہو رہا ہے؟ کیا غلط ہے اور کیا صحیح ہے؟ حکومت کو اس سلسلے میں آگاہی فراہم کرنے کے لئے کام کرنا چاہیے۔ حکومت کو عوام پر اپنے اعتماد کو بہتر بنانا چاہیے
